Camp Bosei or Camp of dreams

Bosei is Japanese for dreams or aspirations

Spring of 1988 a friendship was started with a bow on the mat between Teruyoshi Yamaguchi and David Miller both students of Tokai University judo program. They shared similar ideas and dreams about assisting the spread of peace and friendship through international judo exchanges. Camp Bosei represents the philosophy of Tokai University Bosei Gakujuku and Kodokan judo. As part of the celebration of their 80th anniversary of the founding of the Bosei Gakujuku, the Matsumae Judo Juku has selected to visit Toronto for a cultural and friendship exchange. Dreams come true!

Camp Bosei は、柔道を通じて、夢を持って努力することを奨励することを目的に、日本とカナダの関係団体の共催事業として行われます。

講習会で技を磨き、合同練習で共に汗を流しましょう。記念講話では松前重義博士の活動などを通じ、スポーツマンシップや、国際交流活動について学びます。日常生活やこのキャンプで実践し、平和な国際社会を築きましょう。

Tokai University Bosei Gakujuku and Dr. Shigeyoshi Matsumae

The origin of Bosei Gakujuku is a small private school opened in 1936 by the late Dr. Shigeyoshi Matsumae, the founder of the Tokai University Educational System(TES) and the 3rd President of International Judo Federation. It was a training ground for high-spirited young students to openly discuss the future of Japan and the world, based on studies of the Bible. Today, Bosei Gakujuku continues to be actively engaged as one of the institutions of TES.

We consider it our duty to open a new way to the future, together with others who share the same goal, never losing sight of the idea of social education has been consistent through Out the history of the Bosei Gakujuku.
